

HOLY TRINITY CHURCH GENEVA SUMMARY OF ECUMENICAL RELATIONS

Emmanuel Episcopal Church is an Episcopal parish of the Convocation of Episcopal Churches in Europe, and a member of the Anglican Communion. They are a multinational congregation from a wide range of denominational and non-Christian backgrounds. Their services are in English each Sunday, and HTC hold a joint celebration with them several times a year and also with the Old Catholic Church. You will find more information: <http://www.emmanuelchurch.ch>

The Old Catholic Church, Geneva are in full communion with the Anglican Communion. They have two French-speaking parishes in Geneva, one in the Old Town, St. Germain and the other is Eglise de la Trinité, in Grand-Lancy. HTC hold a joint celebration with them and Emmanuel Episcopal Church, at least once a year. See their website: <http://www.catholique-chretien.ch/>

The Cursillo community is part of an ecumenical movement which organises two retreats a year, in May and November, in French and English, to enable Christians to further their knowledge and grow in their spiritual journey to become more active in their own church communities. Cursillo is a Spanish name for “small course”. Members of HTC who have taken part in these retreats have found it very beneficial. More information can be found at <https://genevacursillo.org/wordpress>

Rassemblement des Eglises et Communautés Chrétiennes de Genève (RECG) is an association of churches and Christian communities of Geneva, with representatives of the World Council of Churches (WCC). The RECG organise an ecumenical service during the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, traditionally celebrated annually from 18-25 January in the northern hemisphere, or during Pentecost in the global South, and invites Christians worldwide to dedicate spiritual time for the sacred cause of Christian unity and to meet in prayer, regardless of their church or denominational identity. The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is sponsored jointly by the Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity and the World Council of Churches (WCC) Commission on Faith and Order. You can see more about its activities at: www.recg.ch

Witnessing Together in Geneva (“Témoigner Ensemble à Genève”) is a platform coordinated by the Protestant Church of Geneva and the International Reformed Center John Knox. It groups together a large number of evangelical and Pentecostal tradition as well as other tradition churches, all issue of migration. You can find out more at: temoignerensemble.wordpress.com

The World Day of Prayer English-speaking churches committee organise an ecumenical celebration on the first Friday in March in the Chapel at the Ecumenical Centre, 150 route de Ferney, Grand-Saconnex. The World Day of Prayer is a global ecumenical movement led by Christian women who welcome you to join in prayer and action for peace and justice. More information: <http://worlddayofprayer.net/index.html>

World Council of Churches is a fellowship of Christian churches which confess the Lord Jesus Christ as God and Saviour and seek to fulfil their common calling to the glory of the one God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. There are now 348 member churches from around the world from different denominations. They have their head office in Geneva at 150 route de Ferney, 1218 Grand Saconnex. See their website at: <https://www.oikoumene.org>